Light
Weekly bible focus: Matthew 5: 14 “You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. 15 Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. 16 In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.  Light Classroom worship.pptx		Reflection ideas for the classroom or outdoor area

He says that we should be like towns on top of the hill – shining our lights to all. Why is it important not to hide a light under a bowl? Is the light of any use there? What do you think this is saying to us? Going deeper  Sometimes we tell people to let your light shine and not keep your talents hidden when we want them to perform well or do their best. And what is the reason that Jesus gives for us to 'Shine our Lights'?

Jesus suggests that whatever we do it should be so that God is honoured. How do you feel about that? For some this will be very important for others it will not mean anything. Whatever our personal beliefs – the important thing is the attitude with which we do things. We shouldn't be doing good things just to make us look good (so often politicians or people in the public eye are accused of this) but instead we should do all that we do with a humble or servant like heart.

What do you think about this?
How do you treat others when we are less proud and humbler?
How does this help to make the world a better place for everyone?

Respond

Encourage the pupils to respond with their own prayers first and then if appropriate use the Lord's prayer.

You may want to write prayers or responses onto the light bulbs.

Our Father, in heaven,
Holy is your name.
Your Kingdom come,
Your will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
And forgive us our sins,
As we forgive those who sin against us,
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
Amen.

Sending/Blessing

"Sending" is the completion of the worship. When your worship in the hall comes to a conclusion there is literally a "sending", as people exit and go back to their classrooms—how you follow the same pattern in the classroom will depend on how you prepared and gathered for worship.

Blessing examples:

Go out into the world in peace. Be brave. Don't repay evil with evil. But always seek what is good. Lend your strength to those who are weak. Support those who are in need. Respect everyone. May God

	bless you, And may you be a blessing to our community, and to our world. For each step that I might take          Be my guide, O Lord of life          For each load that I might bear          Be my strength, O Lord of life          For each mountain I might face          Be my power, O Lord of life          For each danger that I might come across          Be my safety, O Lord of life          For each place where I might rest          Be my peace, O Lord of life          For each sunrise and sunset          Be my joy, O Lord of life          God is great!          God is good!          Let us thank Him          For this time
Tuesday  Mirrors          Mirrors are for looking into and reflecting upon things, either alone or together. Mirrors often help us to see things more clearly.	Gathering          As above Engaging          We will be thinking today about what it can look like when we let our lights shine... Watch – unsung hero  https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uaWA2GbcnJU OR          Jonah and the Whale – Give a Little Love  https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=y0abYKwRWIU How are these people allowing their lights to shine each day?          Is there anything here that you couldn't do? You could write prayers of thanks or simply write their names on a lightbulb. Spend some quiet time thinking of these people. Consider awarding 'Unsung Heroes Award' to people either in your class, your school, or your local community

	Talk about the symbols of the Christingle: God's red ribbon of love around the world and God's good gifts in creation. But this Christingle is not complete. God sent Jesus not just for a one-off visit, but rather God planned by the Holy Spirit to pass on his light to each and every one of us in every place. The light of the Christingle candle can go on forever if we become the candles! Add the human figure to your Christingle in the place the candle would normally go. We are to be the light now that brings God's love and healing to the world. Sending As above

Reflection ideas for the classroom or outdoor area

Monday

Windows

Windows are for looking out onto God's world and being inspired by its wonders.

Gathering

Once everyone is calm and the space is set up ready for worship you may want to start by lighting a candle and saying / signing a greeting.

Examples:

Christ the light of the world is here

Lord Jesus shine on us.

Grace, mercy and peace be with you
and also with you.

Lord, open our lips
and we shall praise your name.

This is the day that the Lord has made.
Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

The Lord is with us
Let us praise his name together.

Engage

Read Luke 1:26-38

<sup>26</sup> In the sixth month of Elizabeth's pregnancy, God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a town in Galilee, <sup>27</sup> to a virgin pledged to be married to a man named Joseph, a descendant of David. The virgin's name was Mary. <sup>28</sup> The angel went to her and said, "Greetings, you who are highly favoured! The Lord is with you."

<sup>29</sup> Mary was greatly troubled at his words and wondered what kind of greeting this might be. <sup>30</sup> But the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary; you have found favour with God. <sup>31</sup> You will conceive and give birth to a son, and you are to call him Jesus. <sup>32</sup> He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David, <sup>33</sup> and he will reign over Jacob's descendants forever; his kingdom will never end."

<sup>35</sup> The angel answered, "The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. So the holy one to be born will be called <sup>[b]</sup> the Son of God.

Hopes & Dreams

Equipment: Paper strips, felt tip pens, sticky tape & scissors or a stapler. Print-out of the conversation between the angel and Mary.

Set-up: Start a few paper chains off, perhaps inside a gazebo, and place the rest of the equipment close by.

Suggested Instructions: Read the conversation between Mary and the angel Gabriel. Think about what the angel said, 'nothing is impossible with God.' Think about your hopes and dreams, however impossible they may feel. If you want to, you can write or draw them onto strips of paper, and then add them to the paper chain.

Angels we have heard on high

	<sup>38</sup> “I am the Lord’s servant,” Mary answered. “May your word to me be fulfilled.” Then the angel left her. You could also watch: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KT_cHi8QJMw&amp;t=6s Explain: This part of the Christmas story, where the angel Gabriel visits Mary, is often called ‘The Annunciation’. Gabriel arrives to make an important announcement to Mary about her future. How do you think Mary felt? How would you have gone about telling someone that they were about to become the mother of God’s son? ‘Do not be afraid!’ – this seems to be the standard opening line for angels! Do you think we portray angels accurately? Look at some different paintings of angels and see if you agree with the artist’s ideas. Going deeper: After Gabriel had made his announcement to Mary, she went to visit her cousin Elizabeth. Elizabeth was also expecting a baby and that baby would grow up to be John the Baptist. What do you think Mary said to Elizabeth about her news? Do you think she was panicking? Worried? Excited? Mary Praises God This part of the Bible is sometimes called The Magnificat. It is said and even sung in churches. See if you can work out Mary’s feelings from the words she says. <sup>46</sup> Then Mary said, “My soul praises the Lord; <sup>47</sup> my heart is happy because God is my Saviour. <sup>48</sup> I am not important, but God has shown his care for me, his servant girl. From now on, all people will say that I am blessed,	https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VutfWYmJSwg&amp;list=PLz2u9XXowozCWhD-TmvhkVOp1mwXqlAgi&amp;index=7 O What a Glorious Night https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6aGLV5CfoTU Sent from above https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tep-97o2kL4 Like A Candle Flame https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TGAXIGBB10M

<sup>49</sup> because the Powerful One has done great things for me.

His name is holy.

<sup>50</sup> God will always give mercy to those who worship him.

<sup>51</sup> God's arm is strong.

He scatters the people who are proud and think great things about themselves.

<sup>53</sup> God fills the hungry with good things, but he sends the rich away with nothing.

<sup>54</sup> God has helped his people Israel who serve him.

He gave them his mercy.

<sup>55</sup> God has done what he promised to our ancestors, to Abraham and to his children forever."

Respond

Encourage the pupils to respond with their own prayers first and then if appropriate use the Lord's prayer.

Our Father, in heaven,

Blessing examples:

We go into the world to walk in God's light, to rejoice in God's love and to reflect God's glory.

Amen

The Lord bless us and watch over us, the Lord make his face shine upon us and be gracious to us, the Lord look kindly on us and give us peace. Amen

Luke 2:8-20

<sup>8</sup>And there were shepherds living out in the fields near by, keeping watch over their flocks at night. <sup>9</sup>An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. <sup>10</sup>But the angel said to them, 'Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. <sup>11</sup>Today in the town of David a Saviour has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. <sup>12</sup>This will be a sign to you: you will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger.'

<sup>13</sup>Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying,

<sup>14</sup>'Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favour rests.'

<sup>15</sup>When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, 'Let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about.'

<sup>16</sup>So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger. <sup>17</sup>When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child, <sup>18</sup>and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. <sup>19</sup>But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart. <sup>20</sup>The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told.

Explain:

Shepherds were not important people in society at the time that Jesus was born.

In fact, they were not just ordinary, they were the lowest of the low!

They spent all of their time with smelly sheep and, as a result, were not popular with others.

So, why did God choose a bunch of shepherds to be the first group of people to hear about his son's birth?

Why do you think we can be encouraged that God chose the shepherds to hear the good news first?

What does this tell us about God?

Respond

Reflect and consider God's choice of people to be the first to hear the news about the birth of his son. We know that the shepherds were not considered important.

Think about the people in our nation and our world who are not considered important. (Link to World Map activity above). Remember them in your prayers.

Our Father, in heaven,

Holy is your name.

Your Kingdom come,

Your will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,

And forgive us our sins,

As we forgive those who sin against us,

And lead us not into temptation,

But deliver us from evil.

Amen.

Responding

What do you think of when someone mentions 'news'? At the moment, the news seems to be full of very worrying stories.

It is so uplifting when we hear good news. Think back to the daily news updates we had on Captain Tom and his fundraising walk – it lifted everyone's spirits and we were all excited to hear how much money he had raised for the NHS.

Weekly bible focus: Matthew 2: 1-12

Preparation

- Collect and wrap three gifts – ensure that they are not appropriate for a baby that would be similar to the gifts given to Jesus by the Wise Men (perfume/aftershave, incense/oil burner jewellery)
- Ask children/families to bring in a small item to add to a Christmas gift box for the homeless – toothbrush, toothpaste, soap etc

Monday

Windows

Windows are for looking out onto God's world and being inspired by its wonders.

Gathering

Once everyone is calm and the space is set up ready for worship you may want to start by lighting a candle.

Light the candle with these words: As we come together, we light this candle. If you are Christian, you may think the light is like Jesus, shining out everywhere. If you believe in God, you may think the light symbolises the presence of God in the world. If you are not sure about your beliefs, the flickering light may make you wonder about the existence of God. If you don't believe in God, the light may make you consider what meaning there is in the world. Or the candle may have a particular meaning for you today.

Saying / signing a greeting.

Examples:

In the name of the Father,
and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen

Grace, mercy and peace be with you
and also with you.

The Lord be with you
and also with you.

Peace be with you
And also with you

The light of Christ be with you
And also with you

Alleluia, alleluia.

We have seen his star at its rising,
and have come to pay him homage.

Wise Men's Star

Equipment: Felt tip pens, star shaped post-it notes or cut-out stars and sticky tape, a big sheet of dark blue or black paper.

Set-up: Securely attach the paper (night sky) to the wall and put the other equipment nearby.

Suggested Instructions: God put a star in the sky to help guide the wise men find Jesus. Is there something that you need guidance about? Is there something you need help with? If you want to, you can write a thought or prayer for help or guidance onto a star and stick it onto the night sky.

Doors are for walking through in order to then act or respond in some way; it might mean moving on, making choices, doing something creative or purposeful in response.	Christmas is a time for giving gifts, following the example of the wise men: Have some rubbish gifts wrapped up (squashed banana, empty chocolate tin etc). Ask a volunteer to unwrap and think about what they think of the gift. Explain how it makes you feel as the person giving the gift – a bit bad because you know what is in the gift Use John Lewis advert.  https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=14cBlpWzcFQ  When we go shopping for Christmas presents we want to make sure we have the right present for the right person...there's nothing more exciting than going to into a shop and seeing a present that is perfect for someone, to buy it and to excitedly see them open it on Christmas morning just like the little boy in the advert. The reason that advert is so great is because most adverts tell us what we want...they are about feeding our desire for more stuff...but that advert tricks us...we believe at the beginning that the little boy is excited about getting to Christmas for his presents but on Christmas morning he walks straight past his own presents to give one to his parents...because that was what he was excited about. Alternative approach  At Christmas Christians often give gifts to/ raise money for the needy.  Show video clip for operation Christmas Child  https://www.samaritans-purse.org.uk/what-we-do/operation-christmas-child/occ-videos/ Responding  Make a Christmas box for the homeless – assemble with objects brought in/ bring in shoe boxes if school takes part in this project. Create a Christmas card/gift for someone in the community – lonely, homeless etc or someone in your family. Sending  As above

You may want to use the following reflection:

Matthew 2: 1-12

The Meeting Place Poem by Christopher Pilling

*It was the arrival of the kings
that caught us unawares;
we'd look in on the woman in the barn,
curiosity you could call it,
something to do on a cold winter's night;
we'd wished her well—
that was the best we could do, she was in pain, and the next thing we knew
she was lying on the straw
—the little there was of it—and there was a baby in her arms.
It was, as I say, the kings
that caught us unawares...
Women have babies every other day,
not that we are there—
let's call it a common occurrence though, giving birth. But kings appearing in a stable with a
'Is this the place?' and kneeling,
each with his gift held out towards the child!
They didn't even notice us.
Their robes trailed on the floor,
rich, lined robes that money couldn't buy.
What must this child be to bring kings from distant lands with costly incense and gold?
And what were we to make of
was it angels falling through the air, entwined and falling as if from the rafters to where the gaze of the kings met the child's —assuming the child could see?
What would the mother do with the gifts?
What would become of the child?
And we'll never admit there are angels or that somewhere between one man's eye's and another's is a holy place, a space where a king could be at one with a child, at one with an astonished soldier.*

Celebration

Take this time to celebrate what has happened during the week – you may want to give out awards. If possible, join the bubbles using Zoom or Teams so that the whole school can come together in a time of celebration.

	Remember that this should also be a time of worship and celebration so begin with a gathering, include a prayer, a blessing, and a song of celebration.

We have gathered here today to think about 'Thankfulness'

Engage

Read or retell dramatically the Nativity story from Luke 2. You could use puppets and/or a sensory box nativity-story-sensory-box.pdf

Or watch:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=L5m2GE6DFeM>

Explain:

Explain that Christmas is a time when many Christians thank God that Jesus came to earth to show and tell people how to live.

Going deeper

Get children to think about thankfulness in relation to the Christmas story. What 'thank you' prayers and sentences might people in the story (Mary, Joseph, shepherds, angels) have said at different moments?

Respond

Please listen to the words of this prayer.
After each line you might like to say the words 'We give you thanks and praise.'

For Jesus, God's amazing gift to the world,

All: We give you thanks and praise.

For all that Jesus has done for us,

All: We give you thanks and praise.

For giving us all we that we have,

All: We give you thanks and praise.

Amen.

Sending/Blessing

"Sending" is the completion of the worship. When your worship in the hall comes to a conclusion there is literally a "sending", as people exit and go back to their classrooms—how you follow the same pattern in the classroom will depend on how you prepared and gathered for worship.

Blessing examples:

We go into the world to walk in God's light, to rejoice in God's love and to reflect God's glory.
Amen

Jesus' Gifts – Being Thankful

Equipment: Play dough, protective sheeting, a table and chairs.

Set-up: Cover the table with protective sheeting and put the play dough on top.

Suggested Instructions:

When the Wise Men found Jesus, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. What 'gifts' do you have? (Not just things, but people, skills, memories, anything really.) What are you thankful for? If you want to, you can make a model of something you would like to say thank you for.

Make a paper chain of these ‘thank you’ words as part of class Christmas decorations (use big links, and supported writing and talk to enable deeper thinking; some pupils may choose/need to show their ideas with pictures). What examples of being thankful were in the Christmas story? Discuss whether children have anything to be thankful for at Christmas this year.  You could show pictures of the things that are taken for granted that others may not have. Responding

	Make another paper chain(use two different colours, maybe blue and purple this time) of all the 'thank yous' the pupils can think of that they need to say this Christmas: to family, friends, teachers, dinner supervisors and so on, for all that makes Christmas a special time of year. Or create a gratitude jar/ tree where children add all the things/people they are thankful for Sending As above

If you did, what would there be to look forward to? Be thankful when you don't know something, for it gives you the opportunity to learn. Be thankful for the difficult times.
